NOTE: During the Boston try-out the part of MABEL was performed by Anabelle Lyon and the part of MRS. MULHOUSE by Virginia Poe.

There are no stage "sets" in the conventional sense, but backgrounds for action are achieved by small scenic pieces on a moving stage, by light projections, and by drops.

The singing chorus is used frequently to interpret the mental and emotional reactions of the principal characters, after the manner of a Greek chorus.

Synopsis of Scenes

The story starts in 1905 on the day Joseph Taylor, Jr., is born, and follows his life to his thirty-fifth year.

The three major locations of action are:

ACT I.

His home town and his college town.

ACT II.

A large city.

"It is a law of our civilization that as soon as a man proves he can contribute to the well-being of the world, there be created an immediate conspiracy to destroy his usefulness, a conspiracy in which he is usually a willing collaborator. Sometimes he awakens to his danger and does something about it. That is the story of ALLEGRO."
